The problem isn't you. It's the options.

You've tried skipping the alcohol, but too many alcohol-free options fall flat in taste, packaging, and presence. Often what's left in your glass feels more like a compromise than a celebration. And sparkling water just doesn't cut it.

It's frustrating to want an enjoyable and elegant wine experience (minus the alcohol) and it come up short every time.

But it doesn't have to be this way.

Finally, a Wine That Feels Right

You don't need to compromise to skip the alcohol. With Nouvie, you get the full wine experience: complex, elegant, and ritual-worthy.

Our 750ml de-alcoholized sparkling white starts as real wine, made from organic Spanish grapes and gently refined through premium methods that preserve taste, aroma, and body.

It opens with bright aromas of elderflower, citrus, and stone fruit, followed by a soft, lively palate and a crisp mineral finish. Elegant, refreshing, and celebration-ready.

From bottle to pour, it looks, feels, and sips like something worth celebrating.

Nouvie is everything you love about wine. None of what you don't.
